

FINALE OF THE ROYAL VISIT.

KING KALAKAUA'S LAST DAY IN THE METROPOLIS.

The last day of the notable visit of King Kalakaua in New York was spent very quietly, and nothing was accomplished in the programme until the reception at the Masonic Hall. At a quarter to nine yesterday morning His Majesty, accompanied by Chancellor Allen and Governor Kapena, drove to the residence of Mr. E. L. Youmans, and there breakfasted. Mrs. Youmans is a former resident of the island kingdom, and has always been on the best terms with his present Majesty. At noon the distinguished party drove to Stewart's, where the King made a few purchases. From there he returned to the Windsor, and at half-past two, accompanied by Lieutenant Palmer, visited Mrs. Kitchen, Colonel C. McK. Leoser and Mr. A. T. Stewart. From thence His Majesty drove to Fourth avenue and attended a children's party at Mrs. Lee's, returning to the hotel at half-past five. His Majesty, having often expressed a wish to ride behind a fast trotter, was then driven in a light road wagon.

THROUGH CENTRAL PARK.
By Mr. C. J. Farley. Governor Kapena followed in a similar conveyance, attended by Mr. Terry. Upon returning to the hotel a reception was held, during which the representatives of various newspapers were presented to His Majesty, who received them with a pleasant word of welcome and a cordial handshake. Although the King seemed more rest after his round of pleasure and exploration in the metropolis he yet found time to accord

A SPECIAL INTERVIEW.
The Herald representative was received with the usual courtesy so characteristic of the King. "This is a great nation," responded the royal guest to a query as to his impressions of our country. "I have been much impressed with all I have seen. Many things that I have observed will, I think, be adopted in my kingdom when I return. I shall always retain the most pleasant remembrance of my visit to the United States. I regret very much that I am obliged to leave New York so soon. My stay here has been very pleasant, and though I am greatly pleased with the courtesy I have met with, I am even more gratified with the friendly hearty expressions of good will that have been tendered me. My visit here has been the most agreeable part of my journey, and to the city of New York I am indebted for many favors."

"Have the arrangements of Your Majesty's visit been satisfactory?"
"Perfectly." The Committee of Aldermen have been very attentive and efficient, and their endeavors to make my visit pleasant deserve much praise and meet with my satisfaction. I cannot say too much for the committee, and for the department, and the exhibition of its efficiency kindly shows me the other might please me almost more than anything else I have seen during my visit."

THE HAWAIIAN LOAN.
The reporter alluded to a report which has appeared in some papers to the effect that $1,000,000 loan recently authorized by the Hawaiian Parliament had been offered to New Zealand in case purchases of the island of New Zealand were made by the United States. Said His Majesty: "No such overture to the New Zealand government has been made, and it is not believed that any foreign country, other than the United States, will become the creditor of the Hawaiian kingdom. No commission is to negotiate the loan, and the Hawaiian government has no intention of making such a loan. With these exceptions the report is correct, except that the distress among the sugar planters, whose business has been ruined by the war, has been greatly exaggerated. The bonds will run for thirty years, bearing an interest of seven per cent."

THE KING'S VISIT TO THE HERALD.
The King had shown the Herald representative a magnificent set of Masonic regalia, presented by a mercantile firm, which was accompanied by a request that the King would accept of the regalia. The King, who is a member of the Mosaic religion, accepted of the regalia, and the King's Majesty accepted of the regalia.

CASE OF GERDEMANN.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AMONG THE GERMAN CATHOLICS OF PHILADELPHIA—HEARING OF THE CHARGES AGAINST THE ALLEGED DEFACTO.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30, 1874.
At ten o'clock this morning Judge Fletcher resumed the hearing, upon which the German Catholics of Philadelphia, who are charged with the alleged defacto, were present. The hearing was held in the court of the city of Philadelphia, and was attended by a large number of the German Catholics of Philadelphia. The hearing was held in the court of the city of Philadelphia, and was attended by a large number of the German Catholics of Philadelphia.

THE BOOKS OF GERDEMANN.
The books of Gerdemann were shown to have been kept in such a careless manner that it was a hard matter for the expert employed in this case to make head or tail out of the books. A number of ladies, many of them members of the church, and most of them German, were examined by the counsel for the commonwealth and cross-examined by the counsel for the defendant.

THE COURT ROOM.
The court room was very densely packed with spectators, and the trial proceeded with great interest. The books of Gerdemann were shown to have been kept in such a careless manner that it was a hard matter for the expert employed in this case to make head or tail out of the books.
